

ST FAGANS NATIONAL MUSEUM OF HISTORY

FOOD FESTIVAL

A firm favourite in Wales' foodie calendar, St Fagans will come alive with over 70 food, drink and craft stalls nestled among the historic buildings.

Enjoy a feast of family-friendly foodie activities, cookery demos, tasty treats and music from some of Wales' finest producers.

We will be announcing more information about the stallholders and the festival activity programme soon - keep an eye on the Food Festival webpage for the latest news.

12TH & 13TH OF SEPTEMBER 2026

HALLOWEEN NIGHTS

29, 30 & 31 October,
5.30-9 PM

The usual family-friendly event with effect lighting/sounds and the burning of the Wickerman as the finale.

Please note that we are planning a practice burn before the start of the school summer holidays.

This will be lit one evening at 5.30pm once the Museum is clear of visitors.
